The Islamic Review, the official organ of the Woking Muslim Mission and Literary Trust, of The Shah Jehan Mosque, Woking, Surrey, England, and of Azeem Manzil, Brandreth Road, Lahore, Pakistan, is published monthly. In conformity with the objects of its publishers the Islamic Review is a cultural, non-political journal which takes no stand on the political policies of the various Muslim countries. In publishing such articles as deal with the world of Islam, its sole aim is to acquaint the component parts of the Islamic world with those problems and difficulties. Its aim in presenting political issues is analytical and informative. All opinions expressed are those of the individual writers and not those of the Islamic Review, or its publishers.

The Editor will be glad to receive articles for publication. These will receive careful consideration and an honorarium arrived at by mutual arrangement will be paid for all manuscripts accepted for publication. All articles not accepted will be returned to their authors, but the Editor regrets he is unable to accept responsibility for their loss in transit.

AT OLYMPIC GAMES

LONDON 1948 BERLIN 1936 LOS ANGELES 1932

THE value of 'Ovaltine' in the training of athletes is known the world over. 'Ovaltine' helps to build the physical fitness required of athletes, and to supply the stamina and endurance needed in vigorous games and sports. Delicious 'Ovaltine' provides important nutritive elements which greatly assist in reinforcing strength and energy and in building up body, brain and nerves.

At the recent Olympic games in London, 'Ovaltine' was regularly served to the athletes of the competing countries both before and after participating in their events. Taken again at bedtime, 'Ovaltine' aided the much needed relaxation which helped to ensure refreshing and restorative sleep. For these reasons 'Ovaltine' is equally valuable as the daytime and bedtime beverage for everyone, in all walks of life.

SOUND, restful sleep is a paramount factor in maintaining everyday good health. Body, nerves and brain rely upon sleep for tomorrow's energy.

'Ovaltine' is particularly valuable for promoting sound sleep. It ensures that perfect, physical and nervous composure necessary to quiet slumber. And while you sleep 'Ovaltine' helps to create new strength and abundant vitality for the coming day.

Try a cup of this supreme and delicious beverage just before going to bed and see how well you sleep, how refreshed you feel in the morning. Avoid substitutes.

Make sure of Sound Natural SLEEP...
