AHMADIYYA ANJUMAN ISHA'AT ISLAM TRINIDAD & TOBAGO
Moulvi Ameer 'Ali was born in 1898 at Pointe-a-Pierre, Trinidad. He privately tutored himself until 1923, when an opportunity was extended to him through Moulvi Fazal Karim Khan Durrani B.A., who was then serving as the Muslim Missionary to the entire Muslim community of Trinidad and Tobago. Fired by the love of Islam, Ameer 'Ali left in 1923 to pursue studies in Islamic Theology at the Ahmadiyya Anjuman Isha'at-i-Islam, Lahore.
After seven years, Moulvi Ameer 'Ali returned to Trinidad in 1930. Now a scholar in Arabic, English and Urdu, he had pursued studies in Islamic Theology at the Ahmadiyya Anjuman Isha'at-i-Islam in Lahore, at Al-Azhar, and at Cairo University. He had toured India, Egypt and the Middle-East, and more than half the continent of Asia.

On his return he was appointed Mufti of the Tackveeyatul Islamic Association, then the only Muslim Association in Trinidad, and of which he was made Life-President in 1935. Expounding Islam according to new thought and scientific arguments, he introduced an era of inquiry and examination as he opposed the seclusion of Muslim Women and advocated their participation in religious and social affairs. His scholarly discourses on the Death of Jesus Christ and the Spiritual Mi'raj of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (U.W.B.P.), lead to island-wide debates with leaders of the Hanafi School of thought and there ushered in an age of renaissance among the younger generation of Muslims in Trinidad.

In 1935, through his untiring persistence, the Immigration Marriage Ordinance was abolished and superseded by the Muslim Marriage and Divorce Ordinance. In 1936, as the first non-Christian member of the Education Board of Trinidad and Tobago, he moved a resolution advocating that the Hindu and Muslim religions should be eligible to receive government aid in running schools in the colony. The only religion considered for such a privilege was Christianity. Spurred on by the Marryat and Mayhew report of 1932 which recommended that the Indian community could have their own schools like the Christian denominations by forming an Association for that purpose, Moulvi Ameer 'Ali began to agitate in this matter and the Indian Educational Association was formed in 1938. Moulvi Ameer 'Ali was elected as its President. In 1944 Moulvi Ameer 'Ali was a member of the Indian Central Committee which rose to combat the controversial "language test" in the exercise of adult franchise in Trinidad and Tobago. The labour of Moulvi Ameer 'Ali in the educational field bore fruit in 1949. The Denominational Ordinance was expanded and El-Socorro Islamia School became the first non-Christian school to be given governmental aid. Muslim and Hindu denominational schools subsequently emerged through out the country.
In 1944 due to internal dissentions and hostile opposition, Moulvi Ameer ‘Ali and his progressive thinkers relinquished their connections with the Tackveeyatul Islamic Association, for whose development they had laboured for over fifteen years. On Pakistan Day August 15, 1947 Moulvi Ameer ‘Ali and his small band founded the Trinidad Muslim League as a Ghair Mukallid (Non-Conformist) Association. This line of approach was meant to convey a gradual induction into Ahmadiyyat and to encourage the educated Muslims into the folds of this organisation, and there was encouraging response. The relationship between the Trinidad Muslim League and the Ahmadiyya Movement was one of close affiliation.

In 1964, on the first visit of Maulana S.M. Tufail to Trinidad, Moulvi Ameer ‘Ali pledge himself with the Ahmadiyya Movement. During the course of his Missionary activities he had also rendered services in Surinam and in Guyana, where he formed The Guyana Ahmadiyya Anjuman.

The Ahmadiyya Anjuman Ishaati Islam in reprinting this new and revised edition of Moulvi Ameer Ali’s most important work dedicates this publication to his sacred memory and wishes to express its thanks to Mrs. Ameer Ali for kindly permitting its reprint and revision.

O Allah! we beseech Thee for help, and seek Thy protection and believe in thee and rely on Thee and extol Thee and are thankful to Thee and are not ungrateful to Thee and we declare ourselves clear of, and forsakes, him who disobeys Thee.

O Allah! Thee do we serve and to Thee do we pray and

In RUKOO‘ I say: sub haa na rab-bi yal ‘azeem, and after the Imam has said: sami ‘al-laa hu liman hamidah, and I resume my standing position I say: rab-ba naa la kal hamd; in the SAJDAHS I say: Sub haa na rab-bi yal a‘laa thrice, in the QA‘DAH I say AT-TAHIIY-YAAT and recite the DA ROOD and a DU‘AA and follow the Imam in the salaam.

O Allah! forgive our living and our dead and those of us who are present and those who are absent, and our young people and our elders and our males and our females. O Allah whomsoever Thou keepest alive among us, cause him to live in Islam and whomsoever of us Thou causest to die, let him die in faith. O Allah do not deprive us of his reward and do not put us in trial after him.

IN A SERVICE OF A CHILD, instead of the above, the following DU’AA is recited:

O Allah! Make him for us a cause of recompense, in the world to come and as one going before and as a reward.
